REMARKS Bruce,

In response to your questions I checked with EXCOM Staff and it is their plan to summarize all of the action items coming out of each of the individual EXCOM sessions. There are 2 EXCOM review sessions scheduled to wrap up this first Agency planning exercise. Specifics such as Don extracted from the "Third World Instabilities" paper will not be dealt with at this point.

If, for example, EXCOM were to directly incorporate initiatives in response to the Third World paper they would incorporate such who would turn that direction into finished guidance for the 1983 program build. Your specific actions in support of their Third World initiatives would be reflected in this 1983 program submission and would have been previously coordinated with the appropriate NFAC components.

Said another way you may want to talk to NFAC informally about the kinds of requirements Don identified for you but I wouldn't spend any analyst or management time on them until we see what will come out of the final review sessions in the way of more specific guidance to am available
